GED

OUR CLASSES

YWCA Family Resource Center is a GED instructional site of Jefferson State. GED classes meet throughout the year, so students may start at any time. Under the supervision of an instructor, each student works independently on individualized plans of instruction, making progress at his/her own rate.
Classes and books are free!

PREPARATORY CLASSES

The GED test offers those who did not complete high school the opportunity to earn high school credentials. If an individual's GED test scores are satisfactory, an official High School Equivalency Diploma will be awarded by the state of Alabama. This credential is considered equivalent to a high school diploma and is recognized as such by employers, the military, and colleges.

Classes start
September 2021

ONLINE & ONSITE

Take classes in person at our center or online. Practice GED tests are offered online at GED.com for a small fee. Financial assistance is available for practice tests and the GED test for those who qualify. Students who successfully earn the GED through Jefferson State are eligible to take one free college credit course.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- Ages 18 and over
- 16- and 17-year-olds must meet specific requirements set by the state of Alabama
- Possess an Alabama State ID
